And thinks their breakfast is just fine.

The rodents do not fare so fair
The guinea pig, too, is near despair,
The weasel seems to worry, so
Unruly it runs to and fro.

How well off the little pigs are
And how they feast with their mother!
The nile horse doesn't seem in need
And swallows quick its breakfast feed.

The rhino too, looks anxiously
For the hand of the guard
Its morning meal begins with fish
He does not let any of them escape

More modest is our old friend polly
Who cracks a nut and thinks its jolly
